Event Program

The Resurrection

This is what is meant by “Transformation”. And to begin with our own immediate matter, the body: In the spiritual tradition the body has been regarded as an obstacle, incapable of spiritualization or transmutation and a heavy weight holding the soul to earthly nature and preventing its ascent either to spiritual fulfillment in the Supreme or to the dissolution of its individual being in the Supreme. But while this conception of the role of the body in our destiny is suitable enough for a sadhana (discipline) that sees earth only as a field of the ignorance and earth-life as a preparation for a saving withdrawal...it is insufficient for a sadhana which conceives of a divine life upon earth and liberation of earth-nature itself as part of a total purpose of embodiment of the spirit here. If a total transformation of the being is our aim, a transformation of the body must be an indispensable part of it; without that no full divine life on earth is possible.
